(By The Associated Press)

SARAH BERNHARDT FAMOUS ACTRESS IS NEAR DEATH

Noted French Tragedienne is Reported Slowly Sinking

(By The Associated Press)
PARIS, March 24.—Madame Sarah Bernhardt is critically ill, perhaps dying. Bravely this remarkable woman, who belongs to the world as well as to France is fighting against the ravages of disease but her weakened constitution makes the odds much against her.

After a long consultation tonight the attending physicians, issued the following bulletin: "The condition of Madame Bernhardt has become aggravated in the last few days and the prognosis must be reserved."

The guarded terms used would lead to the belief that the possibility of Bernhardt's recovery is not great. Bernhardt herself declared only recently that she would continue her work on the stage to the very last and only this week she posed at her home in a film for an American company thus probably overtaxing her strength.

Mme. Bernhardt, who observed her 77th birthday on October 23, last, suffered a collapse at the rehearsal of a new play in Paris on December 18. She made light of the affair at the time, terming it a mere fainting spell and declaring that she soon would be back before the footlights. She suffered several relapses and December 24 was reported as being dying. She slowly recovered from this setback however, and January 10 felt so strong that she insisted on attending the theatre. Since then until the news today of her sudden sinking spell her condition was not regarded as serious.

Says Common Sense Will Settle Matter

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Mar. 24.—Common sense co-operation between the states of the great lakes region will restore the lake levels lowered by natural causes, according to a statement issued today by George H. Wisner, Edward J. Kelly and Langdon Pearce, engineers and approved by W. J. Healy, president of the sanitary district of the city of Chicago.

Mr. Kelly is chief engineer of the sanitary district, Mr. Pearce is sanitary engineer of the district and Mr. Wisner is a consulting engineer.

In addition to restoring lake levels common sense co-operation will aid navigation and shipping and save the tax payers of the interested states hundreds of thousands of dollars that Wisconsin and her associates propose to waste in what will be a long drawn out battle before the United States supreme court to reduce the amount of water Chicago is compelled to take from Lake Michigan to properly take care of the sewage of the middle west metropolis," the statement said.

"Because the attorney general of Wisconsin has closed his mind to the engineering facts of a sanitary engineering problem and because he is spreading his pre-conceived ideas among the lawyers of other states to the peril of Chicago and environs and to the entire middle west in a less degree has been materially increased," the statement continued.

ATTORNEY PECORA NAMES CLUB MAN IN KEENAN CASE

Accused Man Son-in-Law of J. P. Morgan & Co. Official

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, March 24.—Assistant District Attorney Pecora who for nine days has preserved the incognito of the mysterious "Mr. Marshall" of the Dorothy Keenan murder case today reluctantly admitted when faced by a band of newspaper men that "Mr. Marshall" was John Kearsley Mitchell of Philadelphia—capitalist, clubman and son-in-law of E. T. Stotesbury of J. P. Morgan & Co.

At the same time Mr. Pecora removed the veil of secrecy surrounding the identity of "Mr. Wilson, secretary" who accompanied Mitchell to the apartment of the Broadway model the night before she was slain with cholera.

"Mr. Wilson," said the assistant prosecutor, was John H. Jackson, New York lawyer. After this denouement Mr. Pecora held a conference with Mitchell and Jackson. The pair accompanied by Nelson Olcott, another New York lawyer, returned by Mr. Mitchell stepped into Mr. Pecora's office after it had been vacated by "Billie" Bradford, Miss Keenan's maid who also had been summoned for further questioning.

Mr. Mitchell—whose wife, Mrs. Francis Stotesbury Mitchell today professed in Palm Beach complete surprise when informed that her husband had been named as the mysterious "Mr. Marshall"—was called here for questioning as to whether he had any knowledge of a blackmail plot which Mr. Pecora believes existed, but in which Miss Keenan refused to join. In a formal statement Mr. Pecora reiterated his belief that Mitchell and Jackson had no connection with the crime and that neither would be arrested.

Mr. Pecora's naming of Mitchell and Jackson was spectacular.

This morning he announced repeatedly that he would continue to shield their identity for the sake of "Marshall's" family.

Then the name of Mr. Mitchell went the rounds of newspaper offices. Still Mr. Pecora would not talk. Then a newspaper printed the name. Mr. Pecora remained silent but Olcott added to the mystery by asserting that a great wrong had been done Mitchell and that his client would "right the wrong."

It was learned that Olcott was preparing a statement. At this point Mr. Pecora again was presented with a copy of the newspaper naming Mitchell and he confined the identification.

MALGRENE TRIES TO SWALLOW WATCH

(By The Associated Press)
PARSONS, Kans., March 24.—John A. Malgrene, patient at the state hospital for epileptics, continued his mania for metal food today and attempted to swallow a watch.

Dr. J. T. Narramore, attending physician said Malgrene made an attempt to take his watch as he was counting Malgrene's pulse.

According to Dr. Narramore it may not be necessary to operate on Malgrene for the removal of a key, which he swallowed yesterday, for sometime.

"He lived several months with twenty-seven spoons in his stomach," the physician said, "and I don't think a small door key will cause him any trouble, at least until he is strong enough to undergo another operation."

Senator Nicholson Died Saturday Night

(By The Associated Press)
DENVER, Colo., March 24.—Samuel L. Nicholson, United States senator from Colorado, died at 9:15 o'clock tonight.

Carcinoma or cancer of the liver caused his death. He had been ill for nearly a month.

Senator Nicholson was unconscious when he died. He had lapsed into a state of coma shortly before the end and he did not regain consciousness before he succumbed.

The malady which caused the death of Senator Nicholson was the first serious illness he had suffered in his life time. In his first appeal to physicians, medical science was unable to aid him.

For several years preceding his death, Senator Nicholson had experienced slight pains which he had attributed to indigestion, according to his brother, Murdock A. Nicholson.

A robust, energetic man, the senator had given slight heed to the condition. Three months before his death these attacks became more frequent and painful, but it was not until late in

PRODUCERS OF BEET SUGAR WELCOME ANY INVESTIGATION—LOWE

Head of Sugar Manufacturers Issues Statement Saturday

(By The Associated Press)
SALT LAKE CITY, March 24.—The beet sugar producers of the United States welcome any investigation by the present price of justice or by any other duly authorized government body. Stephen H. Lowe, president of the United States Sugar Manufacturers' association, declared here today.

"We are unalterably opposed to any plan or scheme that might produce a runaway market such as followed the relinquishing of government control over sugar during the past war period costing the American people huge sums of money and in which disastrous debacle the beet sugar producers losses were so stupendous that the very life of the industry was threatened," Mr. Lowe said.

"However, in all these extreme fluctuations of the market and the fact must not be overlooked that the buying public plays a most important part, and in spite of conservative estimates made time to time, practical sugar men concerning available supplies, etc., it is hard to control speculation. Another thing the price of refined sugar in the United States is established by the world's market for the raw product and as the domestic cane and beet sugar industry is continental United States produced this year less than 20 per cent of the sugar that will be consumed by the American people the major portion of which unfortunately has already been sold and distributed the situation at the present time is absolutely in the hands of those who control the marketing of foreign sugars."

BELIEVE FLOOD DANGER IS PAST ALONG MISSOURI

Water Flowing Thru Ice Gorge—Weather Moderating

(By The Associated Press)

SIoux CITY, Iowa, March 24.—All flood danger is past unless very severe and unusual weather conditions set in very soon. It was announced tonight by R. J. Anderson, chairman of the board of supervisors of Woodbury county, A. B. Erickson, also of the board and J. C. McLean, county engineer who spent Saturday in the danger zone on both sides of the Missouri river investigating the situation. They said that a drop of two feet in water stage at the lower point of the gorge on the Iowa side, about three miles south of Sergeant Bluffs, Iowa, had occurred from Friday night to Saturday night. A recession of seven inches was noted at Dakota City, Nebraska, they said, the fall having occurred since this morning.

A well-defined and open channel 150 to 175 feet wide has been opened on the Iowa side, it was said in a statement, issued by the men and the water is flowing off freely. The ice is melting rapidly and numerous open spots in the ice sheets have made their appearance.

The three men accompanied by R. W. Richardson, district engineer of the Chicago & North-western railway spent the morning on the Iowa side and the afternoon on the Nebraska-South Dakota side.

"Under weather conditions, such as are prevailing now, Mr. McLean said, 'the flood waters will take care of themselves without inflicting any further damage.' Visitors to the river bank late Saturday afternoon were relieved to see an open channel thru the which the waters were flowing at high velocity.

Members of the delegation from the board of supervisors who viewed the gorge in company of the two engineers declared that they did not order Sheriff Paul T. Boardley to wire war department officials requesting assistance of a bombing fleet of airplanes to destroy the ice jam as was stated in newspaper stories.

STATE'S ATTORNEY OF LAKE COUNTY WILL PROBE JURY BRIBING

To Investigate Alleged Attempt to Bribe Small Jury

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, March 24.—Colonel A. V. Smith, state's attorney of Lake county has subpoenaed thirty witnesses to appear before the grand jury at Waukegan on Monday to investigate an alleged attempt to bribe veniremen and jury members in connection with the trial of Governor Len Small on charges of conspiracy last summer it was learned here today.

No official statement regarding the investigation, its scope or the nature of the evidence expected to be brought out has been made by those who have been quickly conducting an investigation for several weeks.

While subpoenas were being served today threats of violence were made at Antioch against William Riley, a former saloon keeper there when it was reported that Riley had stated that he had offered John B. Field, a deputy state game warden and a juror in the Small trial a sum of money to acquit the governor. Field denied receiving the money.

SEVERAL IMPORTANT MEASURES AWAITING LEGISLATIVE ACTION

Women's Eight Hour Bill, Co-Operative Marketing, Ku Klux Klan and Measure for Removal of Public Officials Are Up—Police Bill Also May be Considered

(By The Associated Press)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 24.—Illinois legislators will return to Springfield next week to find numerous matters awaiting disposal in the three days the assembly is in session. Chief among them are the co-operative marketing bill, the O'Neill women's eight hour bill, the Roberts bill directed against the Ku Klux Klan and the Cuthbertson measure providing for removal of public officials. In addition the Mueller bill appropriating more than $1,000,000 to the attorney general's office will be brought over from the house where it received a large majority this week.

Judging by the spirited debate Thursday, it is likely that proponents of the co-operative marketing bill will have to put up a hard fight to pass it on to third reading unamended, but they may be successful.

Some senators, notably Senator Swift, Libertyville, are in favor of the bill but want it amended to allow members of co-operative societies to withdraw after a year.

The first show of strength on Mrs. O'Neill's eight hour bill also will come this week, possibly Tuesday when it comes up in the house for second reading, the amending stage.

Amendments are certain to be proposed exempting certain workers from the bill's provisions.

Representative Roberts' bill, which prohibits appearance in public of persons masked, robed or hooded to conceal identity will be on order of passage Tuesday and if no more opposition appears than has been evident in the past will pass the house easily. Apparently there is no organized opposition to the bill. Senator Cuthbertson's bill to allow the governor, Attorney General or any state's attorney, or five electors to file a petition in circuit court for removal of public officials is on third reading in the upper house and likely will pass.

The bill of Senator Jewell, Lewisville, prohibiting "sweating" of prisoners, or use of cruel or "third degree" methods on them, also is on third reading, but it is believed doomed. Several senators have attacked it as "sentimental" and likely to hamper police in obtaining confessions from hardened criminals and gunmen, who, it is argued, can be influenced only by harsh methods.

Senator Dunlap's state police bill has been left on second reading, and vote on proposed amendments probably will take place the coming week.

Senator Shaw, Harrisburg, has offered an amendment which forbids an officer to enter a town except in pursuit of a criminal or to procure supplies. Another Shaw amendment would require the state police to enforce the fish and game laws and the motor vehicle act. Proponents of the bill say these amendments would make it ineffective.

The substitute for the Dunlap measure, which certain persons have been preparing since the fate of the original bill appeared doubtful, may make its debut in the next few days. Its sponsors assert it will be more popular than the bill now pending.

Representative Johnson, Paxton, said this week that he and several other members were working on a bill to tax motor trucks of other states using Illinois highways during course of regular business. He added that it might be ready for introduction next week.

Chairman Flaag of the house committee on revenue and his committee members are working on a bill to create new sources of state income having heard the past week several tax experts, who, Mr. Flaag said, furnished some valuable ideas on the subject.

Bombs Are Found in New York City Street

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, March 24.—Two east iron bombs with explosives and carrying 12 inch fuses were found today in front of the Union Methodist church, half a block from Broadway and west 48th street, in the heart of the theatrical district.

The bombs were found at the height of the post-matinee rush when the street in front of the church was jammed from curb to curb with pedestrians and taxicabs.

"Joy Walkers" picked up the explosives in the middle of the street. They were about the size of baseballs, with shells of iron. The fuses had not been lighted.

A patrolman to whom the bombs appeared familiar led investigators to a laboratory in West 48th street, the former home of an aged inventor who died last Monday. The patrolman had been one of the guard assigned to the premises to supervise the removal of the inventor's effects.

After several hours of investigation detectives said they were satisfied the presence of bombs before the church was accidental, that the explosives unintentionally had been placed with the inventor's household goods and lost, unnoticed from a mover's van. No arrests were made.

Rumor of an attempt to bomb the church drew about while another report was that the explosives had been hurled at the police from a window on the opposite side of the street.

Farm Mortgages Not a Sign of Poverty
The Farm Mortgage is no longer a sign of poverty on the part of the borrower. It rather points him out as an aggressive, enterprising, ambitious individual, who, by his labor and thrift, has accumulated a sum of money which he uses as a margin in the purchase of land to guarantee the repayment of his obligation. He is the man who is feeding the world and building the rural communities.

AS QUICK
AS AN EGG

Quick Quaker Oats cook as quickly as an egg. They are ready in 3 to 5 minutes. No other oat flakes cook anywhere near so quickly.

Just like regular Quaker in quality and flavor. Flaked from the finest grains only. We get but ten pounds from a bushel.

But in Quick Quaker the oats are cut before flaking. They are rolled very thin and are partly cooked. So the flakes are smaller and thinner—that is all. And those small, thin flakes cook quickly.

Ask for Quick Quaker if you want this style. Your grocer has both.

It is with sadness and regret that we note the death of Mrs. Coy Palmer of Clements which occurred at her home Thursday night. Ellen Connolly Palmer was born and spent practically her entire life before her marriage in the Oak Hill neighborhood, where she has many friends who will be very sorry to hear of her early passing away. We extend sympathy to the relatives.

T. G. Beadles is papering the house on the Brown place. William Osborne and wife will occupy the house in the near future.

Among those who were in attendance at the funeral services of Mrs. Coy Palmer were: Mr. and Mrs. Pete Connolly and son, Edmund, and daughter, Vera, William Tracey and daughters of Jerseyville, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clifford, Mrs. Annie Still, Mrs. M. Maloney, Louis and Thomas Begnal, Ella Tracey of Jacksonville, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Bush of Jacksonville were guests at Roy Clark's Wednesday.

A Pioneer Minister

A recent issue of the Sturgis, S. D., paper had the following under head of sketch of prominent Black Hills man. Mr. Erskine is a friend of Prof. R. O. Stroop and Ensey Moore of this city.

Maj. O. W. Coursey has been writing for the Sioux Falls Argus Leader a series of articles on "Interesting People." In the issue of Feb. 19th, he gives the following biographical sketch of Rev. Carroll D. Erskine of Sturgis, well and favorably known throughout the Hills and the western part of the state, and one of the most prominent members of the state legislature.

The Reverend Senator Erskine! That's quite a title; but when a man has earned it, he's entitled to it.

Carroll D. Erskine, pastor for the last seventeen years of the Presbyterian church at Sturgis and state senator for the past four years from the 41st district comprising Meade and Ziebach counties, is more than an ordinary man. That's the reason he does extraordinary things.

And he's a power, too, in the state senate. They made him chairman of the senate committee on appropriations in 1921 and this automatically made him a member of the state budget board in 1923. He is now chairman in the senate of the committee on education; and he was also made chairman of the special committee sent to Redfield to investigate the removal of Dr. Kutnewsky.

Senator Erskine has an extraordinary career—one filled with all kinds of undertakings and achievements. He was born at Binghamton, New York, Jan. 20, 1882, and reared as a city lad. He graduated from the local high school and later from the Lake Forest College at Lake Forest, Illinois.

He has never been pastor of but one church—the one at Sturgis. Think of a man's maiden effort in a pulp stretching itself out into seventeen years. Ordinary preachers never do such things. Extraordinary careers are made only by extraordinary men. Such a man is Reverend Mr. Erskine. Frequently he is alluded to as the "sky pilot" of Meade county, and it is a significant fact that he has perhaps married more couples than any other preacher in South Dakota.

Then, too, he has spent much of his valuable time in looking after the welfare of the young people of his community, organizing boy scout camps, young people study clubs, and serving the community in a large way—in fact, so large, that his church has really become a community center.

Senator Erskine is also a real red-blooded man—one who figures that no man is entitled to the citizenship in, and protection of a country that he is not willing to fight for. And so when the World War broke out, he exchanged his Prince Albert for an olive drab, went to war, and served 15 months as chaplain of a battalion at Camp Travis and Merritt. At the end of his military service, he was presented with a beautiful wrist watch by the members of 18th battalion. His work in ministering to wounded soldiers at Hoboken, N. J., is one of the real fine pieces of humanitarian work done during the war.

Our preacher senator was united in marriage November 23, 1905, to Miss Madge M. Mercer, of Marshall, Minn. They have two sons. Mrs. Erskine is the ideal preacher's wife. No doubt much of her distinguished husband's success has been due to her unflinching support.

The record which the Erskines have made at Sturgis and the grip which they have on the community at large have been the result of their lofty characters, their hard work and their spiritual objectives. Two people could never have worked together more faithfully for the upbuilding of any community. Just what their earthly reward may ultimately be we do not know. Certainly there is nothing too good for Carroll and Madge.

On account of the number of sales of Paige and Jewett Sixes, we have a number of good used cars on hand that must be sold at once. This is your fine chance to get a good running car of this character. Act quick.

of occupation troops from Germany.

Miss Anita Baldwin, of California, recently presented the United States Army Remount Service with 13 thoroughbred horses. The animals were a part of the stock
on the California ranch of Miss Baldwin's father, E. J. (Lucky)
Baldwin, which is being disposed of by the daughter and heir.

The final contingent of the American army of occupation,
heralded as "positively the last,"
reached New York March 6 from Germany. The small force comprised one lieutenant and 16 enlisted men, were used to "police
up the Rhine" after their Commander Major General Henry T.
Allen, and other comrades left.

A bill was recently introduced in the House of Representatives
in Washington repealing all existing laws relating to the naval reserve force, and providing for a reserve of 2,000 officers and 10-000 enlisted men. The pay features of the bill were patterned
after the National Guard law
both as to rates and conditions
precedent to paying.

A soldiers' bonus bill recently passed by the Indiana Legislature
a measure providing $10 for each month of service for veterans of the World War and of the Spanish American war, was vetoed by the governor. His reason for stopping the measure was that
"our soldiers of all wars were Federal soldiers, and should be dealt with by our Federal government."

The government of Portugal has conferred the grade Chevalier of
the Portuguese Order of Terra Espada (Tower and Sword) on the 19th Infantry, 27th Division
(New York National Guard), and the 129th Infantry, 30th Division (North Carolina National Guard). These two units serve nearest to the Portuguese force
on the Western front in the World War.

Michael A. Donaldson, formerly sergeant of New York's "Fighting Sixty-Ninth," was recently awarded the Congressional medal of Honor for gallantry in action. Donaldson had 22 other war decorations from different nations for his brave act in taking and holding Hill 288 at Ales-dres, St. George, October 14, 1918. He led 11 comrades to safety during this busy time and escaped being wounded himself.

MANY VITIS AT PLANT PHYSIOLOGY LABORATORY
Urbana—The plant physiology laboratory of the University of Illinois is visited by scientists from various sections of the United States and many countries of the world.

Under the direction of Prof.
Charles F. Hottes, new and delicate instruments of precision that enable scientists to study the responses of plant life and growth
to the natural factors of their environment have been developed.
Foreign scientists visiting this country on inspection trips invariably include this laboratory in their itinerary.

With the machinery Prof.
Hottes has perfected he is able to obtain absolute temperature and humidity control in the experimental greenhouses. Study of the temperature rates of winter
and spring wheat and the effects of the time of harvesting seed
corn on the rate and vigor of germination and growth of the seedling, are other projects in which much progress has been made.

UNIVERSITY IS DIGGING IN EGYPT

Pennsylvania Institution Is Also
Delving into the Valley of the Kings—Repairs to Move to Cooler Climate for Summer

PHILADELPHIA—The University of Pennsylvania's Egyptian expedition, which has been delving into buried history at the entrance to the Valley of the Kings,
where the tomb of Tutankhamun
was recently found, is preparing to move to a cooler climate to continue searching for bits of information relating to the activities of men in past ages.

The university is now conducting four expeditions. One is in the Valley of the Kings, another at Memphis, which was the oldest capital of Egypt; a third in Palestine, and another in Babylonia
where, in connection with the expedition of the British Museum,
in ancient temple believed to have been built 3,000 years before the birth of Christ was discovered. Announcement of the finding of this temple was recently made. Inscriptions were found showing that King Nebuchadnezzar repaired the place during his reign in the sixth century,
B. C.

The university has arranged the work of her excavators so that when the hot weather season
comes in one place they move
to another, thus assuring almost continuous effort.

The work now coming to a close is at Thebes in an area
adjoining the concession of Lord Carnarvon. During the two seasons of digging at Thebes, several tombs have been discovered constructed in the same way as that of Tutankhamun, but all of them
open and looted. The objects
found in each were not of interest to robbers, such as canopic
jars, ushabtis, inscriptions and papyri.

In the last named class of objects a really notable discovery
was made last season when two sealed pottery cylinders were found within the entrance chamber of a tomb which contained roles of papyrus. These were in a perfect state of preservation. On the outside of each roll was a doctet written in ancient Greek,
and upon examination the papyri
proved to be Demotic documents
dating from 318 B. C. to 265 B.
C. They are mostly contracts,
and contain the business transactions of a family during the period of years which they covered. These papyri are now being translated in the university museum.

All of the tombs discovered on the museum's concession were officials of the government of Thebes who wished to be buried near the kings and whose tombs
are therefore found in close proximity to the royal resting place.

Also Excavating at Memphis
At the same time that the university museum is working this concession at Thebes it is also excavating at Memphis, fourteen miles above Cairo, where the museum expedition discovered several years ago the royal palace
of Merenptah, an extensive structure covering a large area and enclosing numerous courts. The floors of this temple are found 25 feet below the surface of the ground. The lower walls, and sometimes doorways and parts of columns, are found standing.

One of the interesting discoveries made at this place is the head of a life size statue of Akh-naten, the father-in-law of Tutankhamun. The features are exquisitely modelled and the sensitive face is rendered in a wonderfully lifelike manner.

The throne room of the Meren-ptah palace, especially the dais,
shows rich sculpture and elaborate use of color. The ornaments and hieroglyphic inscriptions on the columns, and ornaments surrounding the doorways, are inlaid with beautiful pale blue fa-ience. Surrounding the throne room are dressing rooms, retiring rooms, and a bathroom which originally had running water.

Excavation here is still in progress, and its completion is expected to throw much light on the domestic and official life of the Pharaohs.

Memphis was the capital of Egypt from the earliest times known to about 2600 B. C. Then the Pharaohs moved their capital
outh to Thebes, which arose to great splendor. Herodotus referred to the hundred gates of Thebes. This city remained the capital until Alexander the Great founded the new capital at Alexandria, except for the brief interval when Akhnaten built his new capital at Tell-el-Amarna in order that he might start everything in Egypt afresh: religion,
art, architecture and government. His interesting experiment lasted for about a generation or until Tutankhamun restored the old religion, reversed the policy

of his father-in-law, changed his name from Tutankhaton to Tutankhamun as a symbol of his reversion, and went back to Thebes
as the seat of his government.

Merenptah, who is regarded by most authorities as the Pharo-ah of the Exodus, reigned 1225
to 1215 B. C. about 125 years after Tutankhamun.

FIRST AERONAUTICS
BILL IS PRESENTED

SPRINGFIELD.—(By A. P.)—
In the first aeronautics bill ever introduced in the Illinois legislature, Senator Jewell of Lewistown, proposes several regulations for aircraft designed to make them amenable to laws of the land and to protect persons
and property on the ground.

Ownership of the space above
the lands and waters of the state is declared by the proposed act to be vested in the several owners of the surface beneath, subject to the right of flight as described in the next section.

Flight in aircraft would be lawful unless at such a low altitude as to interfere with the use of the land or water or space by the owner, or unless so conducted
as to be imminently dangerous to persons or property. Landing of aircraft on the lands or waters
of another, except forced landing,
is declared unlawful.

The owner and lessee of every aircraft are made liable for injuries to persons and property beneath caused by the aircraft if it is responsible.

One provision reads: "All contractual and other legal relations entered into by aeronauts or passengers while in flight over
this state shall have the same effect as if entered into on the land
beneath."

A maximum fine of $1,000 or imprisonment of not more than sixty days, or both, are provided
as a penalty for the aeronaut who engaged in trick flying over a thickly inhabited area, or who in taking off, flies at such a low level
as to endanger human life.

Killing of birds or animals the killer is in flight also is penalized by the bill.

DIRECTOR WRITES
MUSIC FOR BAND

Normal, Ill.—The Illinois State
Normal university band here,
which has been a successful organization for ten years, plays selections written for the most part by its director, Prof. F. W.
Westhoff. Prof. Westhoff composed a great part of the music
played by the band in order to obtain selections best suited for the organization. The band has a greater percentage of clarinets
than any other band in Central Illinois, Prof. Westhoff said. Of the thirty-six pieces, fifteen are clarinets.

Round Table Club.
The Domestic Science Round Table at its meeting Saturday afternoon in the Duncan Memorial Home, listened to an address by Miss Harriett Selbert, art supervisor in the public schools, who spoke on "Beauty an Essential in the Home." She contended that the average American home has too much in it, of which there is a great deal of no value, either for use or beauty.

However, the women of America are far more advanced in their ideas of home making than those of Europe. It is necessary that women know the different period styles of furniture, in order that they may not clash in the rooms of the home. The speaker explained these different periods, showing how one led to another. Mrs. H. P. Mehn and Mrs. John R. Davis were in charge of the hostesses this time. The assistant hostesses were Mrs. Sidney Jones, Mrs. John Kennedy, Mrs.

John O'Donnell, Mrs. Clarence Ratachak, Mrs. David Reid, Mrs. Cullen Riden, Mrs. F. M. Roberts, Mrs. Charles E. Rose, Mrs. D. A. Shaffrit, Mrs. John Sheppard, Mrs. R. Shoemaker, Misses Elizabeth Stebbins, Mrs. C. O. Swift, Miss Eva Williams, Mrs. S. W. Black, Mrs. Eugene Caldwell, Mrs. Ormsby Dawson, Miss Elvira Craft, Mrs. Edward Greenleaf, Mrs. R. E. Henley, Mrs. W. D. James, Mrs. C. R. Range, Miss Grace Tickle, Miss Dorothy Luke and Mrs. F. M. Welch.

Congregational S. S. Class is Entertained.
Members of Miss Daniels' class in the Congregational Sunday school entertained the girls of Miss Anderson's class Saturday afternoon at a party at the church. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent with games and contests of various kinds. In one of the contests two of the rooms represented flower gardens, certain objects representing certain flowers, the young people being required to guess the names of as many flowers as possible.

A flower hunt was another interesting feature of the afternoon. In two of the rooms roses, tulips and daisies were hidden in all sorts of places and the girls who found the most flowers scored the highest.

An automobile race was a third contest and was staged in another part of the building. After all the unpleasant experiences which can possibly be encountered by an auto driver all contestants went thru the "filling" station where dainty refreshments were served. Altogether it was a very delightful afternoon for the girls of both classes.

MURRAYVILLE LODGES PLAN CELEBRATION

Members of L. O. O. F. and Rebekah Lodges to Celebrate Completion of New Hall Next Friday Evening.

The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Murrayville are planning a big program for next Friday evening, March 30. The program is being planned as a celebration of the completion of the new L. O. O. F. building, the new hall having been used for lodge sessions for only a few weeks.

There will be a banquet at 6 o'clock, followed by an entertainment of short talks, music and readings. The lodge people of Murrayville have planned and executed many celebrations in the past, but next Friday evening's program promises to outdo all previous efforts.

It is expected that at least 300 persons will be served at the banquet, and no efforts are being spared to make the menu a tempting one. The program which will follow the serving of the banquet will include a number of short talks by lodge members, all of whom are enthusiastic over the new lodge home which is now theirs.

FUND FOR NEW HOTEL GROWING STEADILY

Total of Subscriptions Now $129,000—Campaign Will be Resumed Vigorously Tomorrow.

The total of subscriptions to the new hotel project announced last night by General Chairman Henry Frisch and Harrison King, chairman of the subscription campaign, is $129,000. Saturday was a busy day and the team members were not expected to engage in any canvassing work. However, the campaign will be resumed in earnest tomorrow and the captains and their associates have mapped out the work and will go at it vigorously.

Lunch will be served at the Chamber of Commerce rooms at 12 o'clock. The workers are expected to gather there for conference and this plan will be followed from day to day.

The workers are to lay special stress upon the fact that this is a community enterprise in which a great many subscribers are expected to take part. The experience of other cities goes to prove that the completion of a hotel building will bring with it a general rise in property values and for this reason if for no other, every property owner has a vital interest in the hotel project.

CITY FACES DANGER
OF FORFEITING MEET

Western Illinois High School Meet May be Taken Elsewhere in 1924 — League Delegates Discouraged—Make Changes in Events.

Seven schools were represented Saturday afternoon at the annual business meeting of the Western Illinois High School league, held at the high school here. There was a general feeling among the delegates that this city is in danger of losing the Western Illinois meet. In fact, if there had been any other school in the conference equipped to care for the meet, it would have been transferred this year. Winchester expects to have a cinder track by 1924, and unless the meet is better supported this year than formerly, there is no question but that it will go to Winchester, or some other school in the league.

The delegates in the session Saturday set the date for the 1923 meet as Friday and Saturday, May 4 and 5. Part of the literary and musical events will be held on Friday evening, and the remainder Saturday morning, with the track meet following in the afternoon.

Several changes were made in the regulations governing the intellectual events. It was decided to change the name to Literary and Musical events, and to eliminate preliminaries. The oration and composition writing were added to the list of events making four in all, the others being the extempore speech and the declamation. The musical events remain the same.

Instead of holding preliminaries and finals in the literary and musical contests, part of the events will be held Friday morning and part of Saturday morning. Judges will be requested to pick winners in first, second, third and fourth place in each event. Points awarded will be five, three, two and one respectively.

Awards to All Who Place.

It was also decided by the league representatives to give individual awards to all contestants who placed in any event in the meet. These will be ribbons bearing the name of the event and the place awarded the holder. The cups and shields which have been given to the schools winning places in former meets, will be continued.

The date of the annual business meeting of the league was changed by amendment to the constitution. It will hereafter be held on the fourth Saturday in March, instead of during the meet, as in former years. Schools represented at the meeting Saturday, were: White Hall, Winchester, Jacksonville, Greenfield, Ashland, Rushville and Beardstown.

A general feeling of discouragement with the results of the meet in the past few years prevailed among the delegates. For sometime, the profits made after paying the general expenses, have been only about ten dollars for each competing school. The cost of bringing teams and contestants here rests so heavily on the individual schools, that the little obtained from the meet gives hardly any relief. It is necessary for some contestants to remain in the city overnight which entails additional expense.

The other schools in the meet feel that Jacksonville is not interested and is not giving the support to the enterprise which is due it, and the feeling is probably well founded in fact. It appears that the student body of the local high school is not interested in track athletics. The students have starred in the literary and musical events, but it has been several years since local athletes have won a meet. A real effort is to be made this year to make the meet a success, to arouse the interest of students and citizens, and if possible, to keep the meet in Jacksonville. Unless this is done this year in a marked degree, the meet will most certainly be taken to another school in 1924.

EARLIER YEARS IN
SPORT AT I. S. D.

H. A. Molohon of this city, who is a graduate of the Illinois school for the deaf with class of 1891, made an interesting address at the banquet held here Friday evening, recalling many fascinating memories of "Old I. S. D." His recollections may be of interest to many local residents who will remember some of the things of which he speaks. His address was as follows:

When our esteemed Coach Mr. Burns asked me to revive a few of the memories of Old I. S. D., I felt highly honored but at the same time quite a little put out as I feel far from old and like to make others think I am still young. Nevertheless I will endeavor to picture to you, athletics as we knew them in the early days.

Prior to the forming of the athletic association, in 1890, we never knew what it was to have the proper equipment. Gloves or mitts were unknown and after the aspirants for the team were known, they were assessed to buy bats and balls. Some years, when money was not so plentiful, we made balls, laboriously winding them to size, then covering them with horsehide. They were pretty fair balls even if I do say so. The bats, in those lean years were turned out on the school lathe. This lack of equipment wasn't as big a handicap as it may seem. What we lacked in material, we made up in enthusiasm. And after the season wore on, our hands were so tough that we could handle the hottest liner without feeling it. Still the catchers had a pretty stiff job as masks and protectors were conspicuous by their absence.

The first player here at school to use a mitt was a catcher who hit upon the idea of using an ordinary dress glove with the fingers tips cut out. We all laughed at him, and when he muffed one, rode him unmercifully. However, he persisted in the use of the mitt and the first thing we knew we were all using them. Then began the use of equipment which has steadily improved until the present standard was reached.

We had a catcher, a burly sort of fellow who started a game once with a pipe in his mouth. He continued to smoke it in spite of the others warning until a tip foul smashed the pipe and the catcher's cheek with it.

Football was unknown until 1888 when Rev. P. J. Hasenstab introduced the game. In this sport we were a little better fixed as we had canvas suits, with blue and white stripes, the stripes alternating and running perpendicular—quite a color scheme when a match game was being played.

Our athletic field was the entire block, now occupied by the residences fronting on all sides, just north of the school. The field was large enough to accommodate five full games at the same time, and very often have I seen all of the diamonds occupied. My home stands where one of the diamonds was, and as nearly as I can judge, the northwest corner of the house stands on the spot where I used to play first base.

It is not my intention to moralize but as you can plainly see there is a large difference in my schooldays and yours. Frankly there is no excuse for any of you follows not taking full advantage of all the institution has to offer in the line of sports.

H. A. Molohon.

DEPOSITION MADE
IN SOX SCANDAL

CHICAGO, March 24.—Charles A. Comiskey, president of the Chicago White Sox, whose baseball team was nearly destroyed as a result of the 1919 world series scandal, in a deposition taken for use in the suit of Joe Jackson for $100,000 damages to be heard within ten days in Milwaukee, testified, it was learned today, that not until Pitcher Cicotte made a confession of the alleged "sell out" was he able to obtain any direct confirmation of reports of a "frame up." The Cicotte confession was made in September, 1920.

During the taking of the deposition George (Buck) Weaver, former White Sox player, was sent from the room on demand of Comiskey's counsel and opposing counsel then caused Harry Grabner, secretary of the White Sox, to be barred from the room.

Prior to the playing season of 1920, Mr. Comiskey testified that Jackson had been signed up for three years at a salary of $8,000 a year, a $3,000 increase, and that Oscar Felsch and Charles Risberg also had received contracts at increased salaries.

At that time, however, Comiskey said he had nothing definite to connect any members of his team with the scandal rumors. The salary increases were demanded of him, Comiskey said, and he was forced to pay them.

On the morning of the second game at Cincinnati, Comiskey said he received a telephone call and was informed that something was wrong among his players. After the series rumors multiplied. At great expense he hired detectives and offered rewards, but not until Cicotte went to Manager Gleason and told his story of an attempt to fix the series did he obtain any evidence, Comiskey said. After Cicotte made his statement, Comiskey suspended the accused players.

Then the scandal broke in all its fury, the state's attorney had the accused ball players indicted on charges of conspiracy and they were tried and acquitted.

Jackson, Felsch and Risberg all have filed suit for $100,000 each for back salary and damage to their reputation against Comiskey and the American League Baseball Club.

Ray Cannon of Milwaukee, counsel for the three baseball players, conducted the examination of Comiskey and the deposition is expected to be filed in Milwaukee in a few days.

M. F. DUNLAP TELLS HOW HOTEL WILL PAY

Since the project of a new hotel for Jacksonville was initiated almost a year ago, M. F. Dunlap has taken an active interest in the matter. Mr. Dunlap believes that next to water supply the new hotel proposal is the most important thing that has been put before Jacksonville people in many years. In his view the project has its appeal both as a community project and, if properly managed, as a business enterprise.

In discussing the hotel matter yesterday Mr. Dunlap said: "I firmly believe that the building of a new hotel here in Jacksonville will stimulate property values. There is, and has been for some time, a forward look in Jacksonville and the hotel enterprise is right in line with this spirit of activity and development."

"When the movement to provide an ample water supply for Jacksonville was under discussion I expressed the view that an ample supply of water would be certain to mean at least a 10 per cent increase in the value of property. The real estate records of the county afford ample proof as to the correctness of this view."

"There was a time a few years ago when it was very difficult to sell a piece of property in Jacksonville, at least at any price anywhere near its worth. Now it is a different matter, and when property is offered at a price within range of its real value, finds ready sale. That is a decided evidence of the faith that people have in Jacksonville real estate, and in the business of this community."

"I believe that the very same thing will be true in connection with this hotel proposition. When the new building has been completed and is in operation, to my mind there is no doubt but that there will come a general increase in property values, and that every owner of a piece of business or residence property in Jacksonville will be benefited."

"On this theory there is a certain reason for the feeling that every person who is interested in Jacksonville in a public spirited way or who even has a selfish interest in his own property, should be willing to join in the campaign for the sale of stock in the hotel company."

"I have spoken of the ease with which city real estate can now be sold and it is a matter of common knowledge that the demand for rental houses, far exceeds the supply, and a real estate agent I know said yesterday that twenty is the daily average number of applications in his office for houses."

"If we but capitalize the spirit that exists here now and work in a co-operative way for this hotel project and the other matters that may come to our attention from time to time, I do not think that there is any question but that the population of Jacksonville will increase at the rate of say 1,000 people a year, for a period of years, at least until we have a city of nearly twice the present population."

"Then there is another thing to take into account. Aside from growth, we must remember that it is necessary to do some development work if we expect to retain the population we have, and the good opinion and pride of these present residents of Jacksonville."

"For example, if the West State Street pavement had not been constructed and other betterments pushed along against a certain amount of opposition, it would have been a bad thing for Jacksonville, and this city would have been upon the decline instead of upon the up grade."

"In considering the hotel project from a business standpoint you must remember times and customs have changed very much in the last ten years. I do not believe that such a hotel as we are proposing would have earned interest on the bonds and stock ten years ago, but now it is different. Roads are improving, people travel more and spend more money."

"They are willing to pay the price for the things they want, and what they want in hotels is comfort and service. Those are things that can only be satisfactorily given in a modern hotel building. So I say that I can see no reason why under proper management that a hotel here will not pay a reasonable return upon the entire investment, such a return as is made upon other legitimate conservative business enterprises."

"One thing is very certain. If some of the Jacksonville people who are in the habit of making dangerous outside investments would put their money into this project they would be better off at the end of the year than they will be if they follow their custom of outside investment."

"I think there would be little trouble in establishing the fact that each year more money goes out of Jacksonville for investments which are questionable from a safety standpoint than would be required to buy all of the stock that is proposed to issue in developing this Jacksonville hotel project."

"One of the best things about the project to my mind is that every person who is taking a part has only unselfish motives. The thought of a project benefitting the community is uppermost and no one has an axe to grind. No one is purposing to make anything from the project other than the mere interest return upon the money and the general benefit that will come to the whole community."

"It is because of certain community benefit that to my mind makes it the real duty of Jacksonville citizens to lend their aid. The men who have thus far engaged in the canvassing work for the hotel have nothing personal to gain other than the benefit that will come to them, along with other residents, when the hotel building is an actual fact. That benefit is sure when Jacksonville is in a position to properly house the visitors that come by railroad train and automobile."

"The new hotel project offers thru stock subscription an opportunity for investment that under proper management will mean a satisfactory return. It is definitely certain to make a community return that can be measured both in the dollars that will be added to property values, in the increased dollars that will flow and in the increase in community spirit and civic pride."

TOPPED ST. LOUIS MARKET

Osborne & Hayes, Morgan county shippers and feeders of cattle, topped the St. Louis market recently with twenty head of heifers, and equalled the year's top price for this class of cattle.

The twenty head of their shipment were all Herefords, averaged 552 pounds and sold at $9.50 a hundredweight. The Herefords were purchased on the St. Louis market last fall and as is usually the case with "White faces," they made excellent gains on feed.

The firm was also represented on the market March 20th with a load of hogs that sold at very satisfactory prices.

CETS UNIQUE BOOK FROM CALIFORNIA

Mrs. Charles Hopper Received Novel History of Church Building from Cousin in West—Pamphlet Brought Here by C. H. Story.

Mrs. Charles Hopper recently received from her cousin, A. Ray Palmer, who is clerk and office secretary of the First Baptist church at San Diego, Cal., a unique booklet describing the church and its mission. The pamphlet was evidently written about the time the church was built, and tells how the building represents the ideals of the people who built it. "Vision, Realization, Interpretation," are the words that adorn the cover of the book and thru these three steps the author traces the story of the building.

C. H. Story visited the San Diego church while in California, and brought the booklet to Mrs. Hopper from her cousin, Mr. Palmer. The pictures of the church show a magnificent plant, capable of accommodating all of the activities of the organization.

ILDERIM TEMPLE TO GIVE BIG PLAY HERE

Arrangements Completed Saturday Night—Dates April 23 and 24—Grand Theatre Engaged for Performance—Committees Appointed.

At a meeting of Ilderim temple No. 62, D. O. K. K., held Saturday night arrangements were completed to give a show on Monday and Tuesday nights, April 23 and 24, at the Grand theatre.

The title of the play will be "The Minstrel Frolic," a minstrel and a comedy, in two acts, a production of the Harrington Adams Co., incorporated, for many years producers of successful attractions, and has proven one of the most popular yet staged and Jacksonville will be the smallest city where it has appeared.

A director of the Adams company will be in the city shortly to select the personnel of the cast, about one hundred and fifty persons being required. It will be entirely a home play by home people, and when it is considered that Jacksonville possesses some of the finest amateur talent ever seen on any stage, it may be considered settled that the coming attraction will prove high class in every respect.

The State Journal of Springfield had the following to say of "The Minstrel Frolic," after its appearance in that city: "One of the cleverest local productions ever staged here. The Frolic is really unique. It combines a minstrel act, a girly-girly show, a dramatic sketch, a farce and a beautiful dancing act. Costumes are beautiful and settings elaborate. It was a riot of color, laughter, clever dancing, swift repartee and fast, clean fun."

At the meeting last night the following committees were appointed to carry out arrangements:

Executive—Arthur Reeve, general chairman; James Guyette, Charles Reinhart, L. F. Jordan, Harry Herring.
Publicity—E. A. Oids, L. E. Turner, J. E. Scott.
Tickets—Wilbur Hauck, Frank Bracewell, George Brown.

REDS OF VERACRUZ DEFY GOVERNMENT IN NIGHTLY PARADE

City is Acknowledged Hot Bed of Red Activity in the Republic of Mexico—Every Night Reds Parade in Numbers of 300 to 3,000—All Traffic Stopped by the Parade

(By The Associated Press)

VERA CRUZ, Mexico, March 14.—Premier Lenine of Soviet Russia and Heron Proal, a Guatemalan, are the two protagonists of bolshevism most revered in this city, an acknowledged hotbed of radicalism and red activity in the republic of Mexico. Proal is an agitator who is now in jail here awaiting trial, charged with inciting riot and rebellion against federal forces some six months ago. He is hailed as a martyr, and from his prison cell continues to direct his extremist campaign, which includes open revolt against government as a minor proposition.

Radicalism in its raw state may be seen here every night when paraders varying in number from 200 to 3,000 march through the streets, singing revolutionary songs, jeering at spectators on the sidewalk, yelling for Lenine, Trotsky and Proal, and in general defying either city or state government to halt them. All traffic is stopped and for at least an hour each night downtown Veracruz is turned over to the bolshevists.

The nightly parade is a showy and spectacular thing. Far down the street the marchers are heard coming, band blaring, voices raised in song. They round the corner and one sees an expanse of flaming banners—all of them solid red and bearing legends of ad-

Conditions in Mountain States

Babson Lists Assets of Rugged West

WELLESLEY HILLS, Mass., March 23.—Today Roger W. Babson issued his report on conditions in that section of the country which extends from the Pacific coast states through to the Pacific coast states. This group consists of Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, Idaho, Utah, Nevada, New Mexico, Arizona and a part of Texas and Oklahoma.

"I am very fond of this mountain section," says Mr. Babson. "It is the section which develops those manly and robust qualities which are the backbone of American civilization. This is the West, which developed Roosevelt, spiritually, mentally and physically. Rugged character of both country and people, freedom from artificial conventionality and the custom of judging men solely by what they are; characterize these Mountain states. This was very forcibly brought to my mind last month when, on my way South, I stopped in Philadelphia to call upon George Horace Lorimer, editor of the Saturday Evening Post, a man who it is said has the greatest potential influence of any man in America. When I asked him to visit me in the South he replied: 'Babson the South is all right for those who want to live in big hotels and play golf—but give me the Grand Canyon of Colorado where I can ride up and down the trails. There is something about that mountainous country that inspires me as well as rests me.' Similar statements have been made to me by many of America's greatest captains of industry. They may go to other sections of the country for amusement and diversion but when they desire real recreation, to be re-built and re-created, they go out into the Rocky Mountains."

"Yet," continues Mr. Babson, "this mountain section has its struggles. The same difficulties, which meet the traveler when climbing the hills and crossing the deserts, seem to confront those who have settled down to develop the country. Not only has this section suffered more than any other, but its problems are more difficult of solution. The chief industries are cattle and sheep raising, mining, lumbering and a certain amount of agriculture including the raising of very fine fruit in certain irrigated sections. All of these lines have suffered during the past few years and are only now beginning to look better.

"Readjustment in this section has been severe and prolonged, but I believe that 1923 will go down in history as a year of local improvement. Although no sharp upturn is likely, those doing business in these states will note a gradual broadening of purchasing activities and a diminishing volume of overdue accounts. From a mining standpoint 1922 was one of the worst years on record. Poor market conditions and the unusually low prices for copper, lead and zinc resulted in the closing of many mines. The value of the leading mineral products taken out of the ground in Montana in 1922 was only $16,212,000 compared with $95,573,000 in 1920. Greatest activity was noted in the mining of silver and silver-lead ores. The market for all of the non-ferrous metals is quiet, but the fundamental tendency is toward better demand and strengthening prices. Already a number of the larger mines and refining plants have resumed operations. Progress along these lines may be slow for a few months, but it will be in the right direction. Personally, I am distinctly bullish on the copper situation and believe that Montana and the other copper districts will show the greatest percentage of increase in 1923, over 1921 and 1922 of any sections of the country. The same thing, only to a lesser extent, should apply to the cattle and sheep business."

In discussing some of the cities of the mountain section, Mr. Babson reports as follows: "Denver, a city approaching 300,000 in population, shows sales to be 105 per cent of what they were a year ago. Car shops, packing and miscellaneous industries are about normal today. I am sure, however, that Denver and the entire state of Colorado will have a better year in 1923 than it had in 1922. Salt Lake City, Utah, with a population of about 125,000, reports greater activity in mining and smelting with an improved condition of those industries catering to the farmers. Pueblo, Colorado, with 50,000 is not yet back to normal; but I believe the tariff will help this section. It has already begun to feel the effects of a greater demand for steel and iron products. As the Colorado Fuel and Iron companies become more prosperous, the entire country always prospers with it."

Phoenix, Arizona, a center of 35,000 people shows the best condition statistically of any city in this region. It profits not only from the mining industry but also from cotton. This district has enjoyed not only a good cotton crop but favorable prices. Building is active—local purchasing power increasing and the outlook is very good. Phoenix is a very good illustration why every city should seek to diversify its sources of income. Among the other cities for which I am hopeful are Butte, Great Falls, Billings and Helena, Montana; Boise and Twin Falls, Idaho; Cheyenne,

FREDDIE STEWART GETS HIGH PRAISE

Former Jacksonville High and Illinois College Star Making Good as Coach—Also Had Fine Football Team

In the West Virginia High school basketball tournament held in Wheeling last week the Follansbee high school team was defeated by Parkersburg for the state title.

The Follansbee five is given high praise from the fact that it had no floor to play on, and had to journey to Steubenville, O. once a week for practice and all of its games were played on foreign floors.

Freddie Stewart star quarterback for Jacksonville high and Illinois College Star Making Good as Coach—Also Had Fine Football Team.

"If there is a team that participated in the Buckhannon tournament that is deserving of oceans of credit, it is Follansbee. This aggregation might be called the only 'orphan' team in the state as it has, thru lack of a playing floor, been compelled to play all of its games on the road and practice at Steubenville, O. A new high school is being built at Follansbee which brought about this condition of affairs. The team is coached by Freddie Stewart, former Bethany quarterback and guard on the floor team, and Fred has delivered the goods in large packages.

"Follansbee is a crack sporting town, puts a fine ball team in the field each summer, and the high school grid eleven last season was one of the best in the Ohio Valley. Hats off to the runners-up in the state basketball tournament."

AMERICAN TOURISTS ARE RICH HARVEST FOR LUXOR NATIVES

Swarms of Them Have Descended on Egypt and the Scene of King Tutankhamun's Tomb—Luxor Has Gained Fame Since Discovery of the Ancient Pharaoh's Tomb

(By The Associated Press)

VALLEY OF THE KINGS, LUXOR, Egypt.—Within the last month three big ocean liners from the United States have touched at Egypt, and swarms of American tourists have flocked down to the scene of King Tutankhamun's terrestrial resurrection in the Valley of the Kings. American travellers who heretofore have spent their winters in the Holy Land, Algeria or other semi-tropical resorts, have this year chosen the Nile because of its nearness to the tomb of the ancient Pharaoh. The great Presidential shrines at Mount Vernon and Springfield, Ill., have not attracted a greater number of American pilgrims this winter than the strange subterranean sepulchre of Egypt.

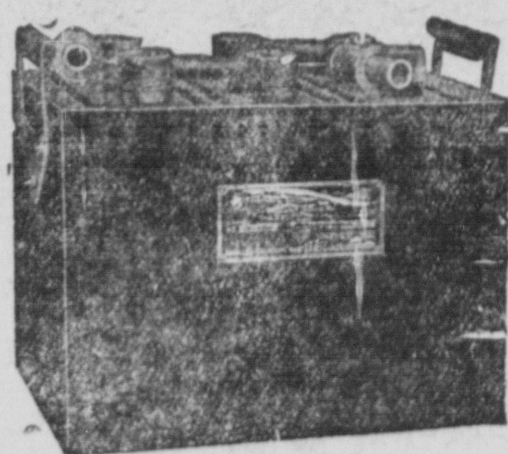

"Have you seen the new tomb?" is the first question put to every American upon setting foot in Egypt. For in the popular view, not to have visited the new famous mummy chamber is not to have been in Egypt. American visitors, instead of stopping off at Cairo, as was their habit previously, now come directly down to Luxor, making the 450-mile journey from the capital in twelve hours, or more leisurely in one of the river excursion boats. The finding of Tutankhamun's tomb has given this little Nile municipality an importance it has not enjoyed in 3,000 years.

Luxor is snugly situated on the East bank of the Nile, opposite ancient Thebes, and has a population of 15,000. Its chief attraction, apart from the new royal tomb, is the temple of Luxor, built by the sovereigns of a forgotten age and, until 1890, buried in the accumulated rubbish and mud of centuries. A Mohammedan mosque built in the heart of the ruins of the Temple strikes an incongruous note. The principal industry of Luxor, besides tourists' hotels, is souvenir-making. The busy and ingenious Arabs of the town bring quantities of elephant tusks, rhinoceros hides and amber from the Sudan and other areas and convert them deftly into a thousand and one novelties and knick-knacks to attract the tourist. The latest product of their ingenuity is an ivory figure of Tutankhamun which is sold for a dollar.

"SLEEPING SICKNESS."

"The U. S. Public Health Service has no statistics in regard to the prevalence of encephalitis lethargica, popularly known as sleeping sickness that are sufficiently reliable and complete to warrant a statement as to the extent of the disease throughout the United States," says Surgeon General H. S. Cumming. "The disease is 'reportable' by physicians in comparatively few states; and in the larger part of the country the only data available are based on newspaper reports. Moreover the disease is rather easy to confuse with some other diseases; and its prevalence is therefore likely to be unduly magnified. Thus, in an investigation made by Dr. H. F. Smith, of the Public Health Service, of the 1918-19 epidemic, 22 percent of the supposed cases had to be excluded as being really cerebro-spinal meningitis, cerebral syphilis, brain abscess, tuberculosis meningitis, epilepsy, poliomyelitis, hysteria, or acute alcoholism.

"The disease appears to be only difficultly communicable. Not a single secondary case is known to have occurred in the immediate families of the patients reported in 1918-19, although some 900 persons were exposed.

"The fatality is rather high. Of the 159 cases by Smith death resulted in 46, or 29 per cent.

"It is interesting, though perhaps not significant, that the peak of the outbreak of 1918-19 was reached in New York City in January; in Louisiana, Texas and Illinois in March; in California the largest number of cases reported in any one month was in April. Whether this progress was related to the season of the year or was merely a result of the spread of the disease is not known. Comparison with the present spread may throw some light on the subject.

"The disease is slow in development and long in duration. The period of convalescence is variable; in some cases recovery is complete within two weeks after the subsidence of the acute symptoms; but in others it is prolonged and leaves its record on the mind, on certain muscles, and on the nerves of the cranium. The mental troubles, however, usually pass off eventually.

"The appearance of encephalitis in epidemic form has, except for one epidemic reported from Austria, always been preceded by an epidemic of influenza. Forty-six per cent of the cases studied by Dr. Smith had been influenza and 54 per cent had not. The influenza attack rate has been ascribed to the lowering of the vitality of the patients by the influenza; but has also been explained as being really due to another attack of influenza which has invaded the central nervous system of the body. Whether or no there is any connection between the two diseases has not yet been established."

Nature is sending blood—either good or bad—to every part of your body. Feel your pulse and think about your blood!

It is a fact that with the increase of red-cells in your blood, impurities are destroyed. It is a fact that S. S. S. builds red-blood-cells and serves to destroy impurities which cause pimples, boils, eczema and rheumatic trouble! It is a fact that S. S. S. is one of the most remarkable nerve-power builders ever produced to build up fagged-out, run-down men and women. It is a fact that S. S. S. sharpens the appetite, puts the "pink of the rose" in the cheeks, and energy, and helps to make flesh firm! It is a glorious fact that S. S. S. has given new, long-forgotten strength to older people and has made many old and young people look years younger. Blood is life—it is your foundation. Make it rich. Get blood-strength. We all need it, especially rheumatics. Begin taking S. S. S. right away today. It will prove itself. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical. If you cannot get S. S. S. yourself, see that someone in your household gets it for you. Read this aloud to the family tonight.

J. M. Mar, Los Angeles, Calif., writes: "Overwork occasioned a complaint which consisted of a tired feeling and aching in the back that finally exhausted all my strength. I had recourse to doctors, who could do nothing beneficial, notwithstanding I turned over to them a large part of my capital. A friend advised me to take S. S. S. and after taking seven bottles I was entirely cured."

"For two years I suffered agonizing pains in my stomach, belching up sour and bitter fluids and gas. Tongue always coated. Doctors were unable to help me. The first dose of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy made me feel 100 per cent better, and I am now feeling better than at any time in my life. I deem it my duty to advise other sufferers." The Best Place to Trade, After All

OF VERA CRUZ BY GOVERNMENT IN NIGHTLY PARADE

be paid in view of the fact
the landlords refused to return to a figure acceptable

to the union. It is said that there are at least 5,000 members of the union here who have paid no
rent for months. The question has been checked up to President Obregon who has indicated that he is not sympathetic with the tenants.

Workers All Unionized

Every branch of the working class represented in this city is unionized. A former stevedore is now mayor of Veracruz. The stevedores are the strongest, and recently succeeded in tying up port activities by strike, causing immense losses to the city. Strikes and boycott are constant threats

here. Demands are made of merchants and industries and if they are not met, no matter how unreasonable, labor refuses to work or buy. Numerous employers
have closed down shop and, according to a statement made to the correspondent by a reliable source, Veracruz business has decreased 40 per cent within the past year.

To meet the situation the merchants of the city are attempting counter organization. An effort is being made to secure the signatures of 420 business men to a protective agreement. Under the plan, if exorbitant demands are made on any member and strike

or boycott is threatened all of the affiliated members would close their places of business. It is recognized that the only way
this agreement could be made effective is to secure 100 per cent
adhesion.

It is an open secret that the city government of Veracruz and the state government at Jalapa are not decidedly antagonistic to radical activity in this port city. The one big check against wholesale aggression is the federal government which is always ready to stop untoward events. It was a clash between the radicals and federal soldiers that landed Heron sons here feeling that his work is more here than it was before his arrest. He has even syndical-ized the prisoners and on a recent national holiday succeeded in staging a celebration, aided by smuggling liquor, that almost ended in a jail delivery.

The newspaper "El Dictamen,"
one of the oldest in the republic,
has been threatened with destruction many times and several weeks ago an attempt was made to force
the editor to suspend publication
following a clash with the governor of the state. It is understood that a hint from the national palace in Mexico City caused the governor to reconsider.

23 SERIES SPECIAL-SIX
TOURING CAR $1275

You make no mistake when you select
the Series 23 Studebaker Special-Six Touring Car. You can determine, in advance,
why it is so desirable a car to own by doing four simple things.

Come in and inspect it carefully—from radiator to stop-and-tail light. Note its long graceful lines, the beauty of its finish
and upholstery, its sturdy construction,
roominess and unusual equipment.

Get behind the wheel yourself. See how conveniently all controls are placed. Notice what a relief it is to have a one-piece,
rain-proof windshield, giving unobstructed
view of the road ahead. See how easily

it steers—how faithfully it holds the road.

Test its acceleration, power, flexibility.
Drive through traffic at low speed in high gear. See how conveniently it can be parked where space is limited.

Then compare any car within $300 of its price with the Special-Six. Compare the specifications, performance, comfort,
appearance and refinements.

And finally talk to some Special-Six owners. Ask them frankly about their all-round satisfaction with the Special-Six.

The Special-Six possesses every essential for lasting satisfaction.

long cotton cloaks and white turbans, while the women wear summer dresses and shawls of deep black that cover every inch of their faces. The children of both sexes ramble about the streets naked, a custom dictated both by economy and the excessive heat. The only school in the town is an American missionary institution for girls. Like the modern Greeks, the Egyptians of today take little interest in the history and achievements of their ancient forebears
and seem quite indifferent
to the temple and tomb excavat-ings being carried on by the American, British and French archaeologists. They are interested only in the amount of gold the new tombs may produce, and they indulge the suspicion that large quantities of this are taken secretly out of Egypt by foreigners.

A pleasant 15-mile sail across the Nile in catboats rowed by Arab brings the visitor to the site of ancient Thebes. In its day
the largest and most sumptuous capital in the world. The metropolis of antiquity is not a vast expanse of sand, marshes, sugar cane and straggling farms. The city of New York might be placed upon the present plain of Thebes, but a part of it would overflow into the Nile.

Donkeys to Destination.
When the west bank of the Nile is reached, the visitor usually mounts a donkey or camel for the two-hours' ride to the Valley of the Kings. He passes on the way
the great Colossi of Memnon, one of which, according to tradition,
sings sounds when the sun's rays fall upon it. The Emperor Hadrian came here in the dawn of Roman history and scratched his initials upon the pediment of the great Memnon, just as do the tourists of today.

The Royal Necropolis, which which entombs the dead of forty centuries, lies six miles from the river's bank. The narrow footpath that led to it in the days
when Tutankhamun's sanctuary
was uninvaded by prowling archaeologists has become expanded
into the width of a good American road. It winds through poverty stricken villages of the native farmers, past the Temple of Rameses III, and beyond the mountain shrine of Queen Hatshepsut, the Cleopatra of the Dynasty, and thence past the death-
like Valley of the Queens.

After getting a glimpse of the entrance to Tutankhamun's rockhewn portal—for no one is permitted to go into the tomb itself
—visitors usually seek the cool
shade of one of the many tombs
that are quarried in the side of the mountain. Here they discuss the merits of Tutankhamun's sepulchre and eat their luncheon,
while the mummified body of a
pharaoh of by-gone centuries
rests in all its ancient majesty
in a ghostly inner chamber.

Illinois College Notes

President Rammelkamp has recently been appointed one of the incorporators of the New Board of Christian Education of the Presbyterian church. This is a board appointed as a result of the decision of the General Assembly to combine several of the separate boards which have heretofore existed in the Presbyterian church.

A special edition of the Press-Guardian of Paterson, New Jersey, contains individual photographs of the members of the Rotary Club of that city. Among the photographs is that of Dr. Charles B. Russell '99 who represents the medical profession in the Patterson Club.

When President Rammelkamp was in San Francisco, he secured at one of the city bookstores a copy of Lincoln's lecture on "Discoveries and Inventions." This is the lecture which Lincoln delivered under the auspices of Phi Alpha in Strawn's hall in 1859. Strange to say, not enough people turned out to hear the lecture to enable the Phi Alpha boys to pay Mr. Lincoln his lecture fee. With his usual generosity, Lincoln told the boys that he would be satisfied if they paid him his fee over from Springfield and fifty cents for his supper at the hotel.

A letter was recently received from Professor Alfred E. Day '88 of the American University of Beirut, enclosing some Cedar of Lebanon seeds. Professor Day is very anxious to see a Cedar of Lebanon growing on the campus of his alma mater. Several years ago he sent a small tree to the college authorities and it was duly planted but failed to survive. These trees grow in Geneva and London and there seems no reason why it should not grow in Illinois.

A reprint of an article on "Experimental Observations on the Localization of the Pain Sense in the Peritoneal and Diaphragmatic Peritoneum," by Dr. Joseph A. Capps '21, and Dr. George H. Coleman, has recently appeared. The article was published in the Archives of Internal Medicine.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. John R. Martin of Cleveland, Ohio, on February 25th. He is already entered as of the class of '25. Mrs. Martin was formerly Wilma Vogt, ex-'23.

C. R. Sinclair, a former student of Whipple Academy, was a visitor on the campus recently. Mr. Sinclair is an aviator of Detroit, Michigan. He was in army work during the war and is now engaged in commercial aviation.

Wayne Gard '20 had an article in the New York Nation list of January on "Barma for the Burmans."

The College band went to Carrollton Friday afternoon to give a concert at the Carrollton High school. Friday evening, and will play at Greenfield Saturday evening.

The spring vacation at Illinois College will begin next Wednesday evening and last until Thursday morning, April 5th.

The Glee Club Concert will be given Monday evening, March 26, in the High School auditorium. The I. C. string quartet played both at Kiwanis Thursday and Rotary Friday by way of advertising the Glee Club concert.

The Y. M. C. A. inauguration banquet will be held this evening at 8 o'clock at Westminster church.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES

The Sophomore class is actively promoting the sale of the new cook book. They are taking this method as one of the ways in which to raise money for the endowment. Recipes for many of the college dishes are in the book and there is no doubt but what it will prove most popular. The announcement in regard to the cook book was formally made in a clever stunt given in the social room by some of the members of the class.

Miss Ruth Stanwood, formerly director of Physical Education and Miss Edna Stoors, who formerly was in charge of the household Arts department, have been guests of the college recently.

The Lambda Alpha Mu banquet occurred Saturday evening, the 24th. At this banquet a large number of former students were in attendance. The affair, as usual, was greatly enjoyed.

The Spring Revue promises to be exceptionally interesting and will draw a capacity house. The departments of Physical Education and Home Economics have combined in this entertainment so that there is no question as to the splendid results. The most attractive features of the Revue will consist of exhibitions of some of the work given in the department of Physical Education, such as folk dancing, swimming, etc., a style show staged by the students in the Household Arts department and last, but not least, these splendid refreshments which will be served by the students in Household Science.

Rev. C. P. Johnson who comes directly from the campaign in Michigan, arrived in Jacksonville Friday. He will be in charge of the local plans and will assist in the completion of the work which is to be done in this vicinity.

Dr. Wallace N. Stearns of Mc-

Kendree College was a visitor at the college Friday. Eleanor Sherrell of the class of '19 died after several months illness in California. Miss Sherrell was a most talented young woman and was active in the school organizations. Her untimely death comes as a great shock to her many friends both of the college and at her home.

Mr. Birger Sandgler—lithographer of the west, whose lithographs have been on exhibition at the Woman's College the past ten days, has sent to the college with his compliments, two of his fine lithographs, "Cedar and Sentinel Rock, Colorado," and "Pond with Cottonwood Trees."

AMERICAN LEGION POST ORGANIZES NEW SOCIETY

Charter Members Met in Legion Hall Recently — Will be Initiated at Springfield Soon.

At a meeting held at the American Legion Hall, recently a number of members of Jacksonville Post No. 270 organized a new auxiliary society known as the "40-8." It is a fraternal organization to which all members of the American Legion are eligible.

The society is officially known as "La Societe des 40 Hommes et 8 Chevaux," and the local organization will be known as "Voiture Locale No. 512." The 40-8 or "box car society" as it is popularly known, is the fraternal society or playground of the American Legion, and corresponds to the Shrine of the Masonic order, or the D. O. K. K. of the Knights of Pythias.

The idea originated from the French railway system and their type of box cars labeled "40 Hommes et 8 Chevaux," which translated means "40 men and 8 horses," the capacity of the car. These cars were used for transporting troops during the World War. Many times these cars were loaded beyond their stated capacity, and the ex-service men are well acquainted with them.

The local members of the society will be initiated by the Springfield organization, the members here making the trip to Springfield in the near future.

Only members of the American Legion are eligible to membership, and there can be but one local Voiture to a county, but all Legion members of the different posts of the country are eligible, and are cordially invited to join the local organization.

The following officers were elected at the meeting last night:

Chef de Gare (president)—Homer G. Bradley.

Chef de Train (vice president)—J. Chester Colton.

Commissaire Intendant (treasurer)—Joseph P. Hosp.

Correspondant (secretary)—Frank L. Vannier.

Conducteur (master of ceremonies)—Charles N. Kahl.

Gardes de Prisonnier (special guards)—Murwin D. Ator, Raugh Jennings, Frank A. Robinson.

Gardes de la Porte (sergeant-at-arms)—Morse Updegraff.

An executive committee and committee on by-laws were also elected.

What Certain Other Communities Are Paying for Their Schools

(NO. 3—SUPT. B. F. SHAFER)

In article No. 1 I attempted to set forth the condition of our grade school buildings. In Article No. 2, the financial status of our district was presented. In this article I want to present briefly some data as to what certain other communities of the state are paying for their schools.

In order to make myself clear it will be best for me to explain two different terms which I shall use in this discussion, namely: the unit system and the dual system. These terms have reference to two different plans of school administration.

The unit system has reference to that organization which maintains all of the public school work under the direction of one board of education.

The dual system is found wherever we find the community or township high schools. These high school districts always contain several original districts or parts of districts such as we commonly think of as local school districts. Each local district has its board of directors or board of education which directs the work of the first eight grades. The larger or high school district has its board of education which directs the work of the high school.

It is always helpful to know what other communities are doing about a problem we have to face, but this does not imply that we should follow their example. Conditions are never exactly reproduced. All that any city can do, and act intelligently, is to consider the facts in a given situation and then with the experience of others, together with those of its own, proceed to render a judgment.

Recently a letter came to my office from the statistical department of the state office. Quoting from this letter "We have a list of ninety-eight districts, most of which are levying three per cent for educational purposes and one percent for building purposes." Such places as the following are included in the list: Hoopeston, East St. Louis, Moline, Glenview, Granite City, Kankakee, Naperville, Chicago Heights, Cicero, Oak Park, Rock Island, River Forest, Wilmette, Matteson, Charleston and Decatur.

Granite City of this list has a community high school, Chicago Heights, Cicero and Oak Park have township high schools. This means that their tax for school purposes is considerably more than four per cent and possibly six and seventy-five hundredths per cent.

As the tax rates in the ninety-eight districts mentioned above are not the sum of the grade and high school tax, except as they are operating under the unit system, it must be concluded that there are many cities, operating under the dual system, in which the tax for school purposes is considerably more than two and seventy-five hundredths per cent. This per cent is the permissible levy of each school district. Thus in such cities the people are subjected to a possible tax of five and one-half per cent.

I know personally of two cities operating under the dual system of school administration in which the tax rate for school purposes is five and one-half per cent. Both of these cities find they cannot run their grade schools alone on a tax of two and seventy-five hundredths per cent. They expect to vote an increase thereby taxing themselves six and seventy-five hundredths per cent for school purposes.

Since there are one hundred and seventy-one cities in the state with a population of twenty-five hundred or more; since such cities compromise about all of the districts liable to tax themselves very highly for school purposes; now taxing themselves above two and seventy-five hundredths per cent; and since this count does not include districts under the dual system where the sum of the tax for the two districts is more than two and seventy-five hundredths per cent; it can be concluded that considerably more than fifty per cent of the cities of twenty-five thousand and more inhabitants are taxing themselves at more than the permissible rate of two and seventy-five hundredths per cent for school purposes. (By permissible rate I mean the rate at which a board may raise money without a special vote of the people.)

A TRIBUTE.

In loving remembrance of Mrs. Chester Blimling:

Nobody knows the steps it takes to keep a home together,

Nobody knows the care each makes,

Nobody knows but mother.

Nobody knows how long the day,

Nobody knows but mother.

Those mother hands, so cold and white are folded now forever,

You know she has only gone before, to her home so bright and fair.

Look ever forward to the time when you will meet her there.

The golden gates were opened wide, a gentle voice said come, and the angels from the other side welcomed our loved one home.

God in his wisdom has recalled The boon his love had given; And though the body slumbers here,

The soul is safe in Heaven.

A Loving Friend.

FRECKLES

March Brings Out Unightly Spot—How to Remove Easily

The woman with tender skin dreads March because it is likely to cover her face with ugly freckles. No matter how thick her veil, the sun and wind have a strong tendency to make her freckle.

Fortunately for her peace of mind, Othine—double strength, makes it possible for even those most susceptible to freckles to keep their skin clear and white. No matter how stubborn a case of freckles you have, the double strength Othine should remove them.

Get an ounce from your druggist and banish the freckles. Money back if it fails.

Incomparably--The Better Way

Mausoleum burial goes back into the purple haze of time. The oldest standing structure in the world, the great Stepped Pyramid in Egypt, six thousand years ago was built, a tomb for kings.

But mausoleums are no longer alone for kings. Tombs far more beautiful than those which marked the resting place of royalty are today within the purse of the average man and by their use humanely purifies life's cast-off garment and gives to us all that can endure—dust, clean, untainted by contact with the soil and those processes of earthly decay of which we know but do not like to hear. It offers to those who rest behind eternity's veil the respect which is their due.

Incomparable are such methods that surround they who rest with things of beauty, and through centuries, will still tenderly guard them long after cemeteries of today are forgotten and the sturdiest shaft has added its shattered length to sunken mounds.

They have proved that Jewett Six will stand hard service under all conditions. Because it is the sturdiest car of its size or price—whether four or six. Because it weighs 2805 pounds—200 pounds more than "light sixes." Because it has a husky six-inch frame, with wide top flange, four rugged cross-braces, and high-duty Paige-Timken axles, front and rear.

Jewett owners have proved its wonderful reserve power, as well. Power that soft roads and stubborn hills never tax. Because Jewett has a Paige-built motor of fifty horsepower that literally fills the hood! The largest built for a medium-sized six. Running at moderate speed gives it long-lived dependability, free from usual wear.

These 25,000 owners have proved Jewett outperforms any car of its class. Because no car this size has 249 cubic inches piston displacement. Most power for weight within $200 of its price. In spite of its husky strength Jewett carries but 11 1/2 pounds of weight to each inch piston displacement, where comparable cars carry 14 to 16. The answer is easy!

They have proved, these owners, that Jewett doesn't overheat or get noisy. The hollow crankshaft high-pressure oiling system forces 2 gallons of oil per minute to all main and connecting-rod bearings. This best-oiled motor in a medium-sized car stays smooth and young.

These 25,000 owners, won in one short year from its announcement, have proved that Jewett Six has amazing pep and pickup. Accelerate from 5 to 25 miles an hour in 7 seconds. Little wonder Jewett has shattered hill-climbing records the country over! Two miles an hour in traffic to 60 on the highway—in high gear. Flexibility that pleases all.

Finally, these 25,000 owners have proved Jewett unrivaled for easy riding and substantial comfort. Extra long springs, deep roomy cushions, wide seats, and substantial construction tell why. And Jewett has handling ease unequalled except in the Paige.

What these 25,000 owners have proved for themselves we shall be glad to prove to you. At your first convenience, see the big-six value Jewett gives at $995!

CHANGE IN METHOD OF QUOTING BONDS

NEW YORK, March 24.—The method of quoting United States government bonds on the New York stock exchange has been changed so that the minimum fluctuation is fixed 1-32 of one point instead of the decimal system with its minimum of 2 cents on $100. While this increases the present minimum fluctuation it still permits of a much narrower
movement than that in other listed bonds, which are quoted in eighths of a point.

The decimal system was instituted during the war at the request of the United States government, which wanted the narrowest practicable quotation in order to provide the maximum stability in price during the distribution period. Now that the bonds have been well distributed
the need for this extremely narrow fluctuation is said to no longer exist.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE IS PLANNING TWO MUSICAL EVENTS

Easter Vesper Service and Student Ensemble Program Announced.
Public Invited to Attend
Both.

The Illinois Woman's college announces two musical events of unusual interest on March 25th and 26th. Twice each year the music department offers to the Jacksonville public programs that promote and increase interest in music appropriate to the worship inspired by the Christmas and Easter seasons. These programs have come to be regarded by the discriminating as sources of inspiration and beauty such as are infrequently offered. A fine dignity and spirit of reverence is ever uppermost and the hour's enjoyment which they afford is an experience to be remembered with greatest pleasure.

The program offered for the Easter service in Music hall on Sunday afternoon at 4 p. m. will maintain this same high note. The various numbers represent that which is wholly inspirational and at the same time thoroughly enjoyable. The music faculty gives generously of its ability and this is guarantee of much. The program follows:

Organ—Offertories founded on the Ancient Easter
Carol "O Filii, Et Filiae".... Lorel
A Spring Morning.... Zimmerman
Intermezzo and Meditation
from Suite in G Minor.... Truette Henry Ward Pearson.
Voice—The Resurrection.... Shelley
Mrs. Marguerite Palmer-Forrest.
Reading—The Effectual Fervent
Prayer.... Henry VanDyke
Miss Janette Powell.

Violin—Prize Song from "The Meistersinger".... Wagner-Wilhelm
Miss Beatrice Horsbrough.
Miss Olga Sapio at the piano.

Chorus—Ave Maria....
..... Bach-Gounod-Saar
The Madrigal Club.

Mrs. Marguerite Palmer-Forrest,
Soprano and director.
Miss Gwendolynne Schroyer, con-
tralto.

Miss Beatrice Horsbrough, violin.
Miss Marie Lake, piano.
Henry Ward Pearson, organ.

On Monday evening at 8:15 there will be a students' ensemble recital.
Piano, violin, organ and voice numbers in several combinations will be presented. Like the Vesper Services, the annual ensemble recital has come to be regarded as one of the big musical events of the college calendar. The format of this program shows that the music students are devoting their time, energy and talent to that which is worthy the scholarly attention of those who care for works of real merit rather than works of lesser quality or appeal. What is most marked in this program is the splendid accord with which each performer adapts herself
to the demand of her special part of the presentation, so that the number in its entirety becomes of primary importance. This point of emphasis is all too often lacking in student work and that it has been stressed in evidence of the thoroughness and seriousness of preparation for this recital.

The program of the ensemble recital follows and the public is cordially invited to both the above
events:

Peer Gynt Suite (two pianos).... Grieg
Marion Harvey, Marjorie Allen, Gertrude Foster, Lora Glass.

Duo (two violins).... Pleyel
Alta Crum, Beulah Farnham.

Willa Crum at the piano.
Rondo (two pianos).... Mohr Helen Gaster, Lois Broadstone.

Marishka, Hungarian Folk Song
(three voices).... Arr. Deems Taylor
Vivian Rush, Lois Broadstone,
Gwendolynne Schroyer.

Humoresque (two pianos).... Grieg
Eastern Intermezzo.... Grainger

Largo from Concerto (two violins).... Bach
